

Calhoun: The NPS Institutional Archive
DSpace Repository

---

Faculty and Researchers

Faculty and Researcher Awards

---

1982

Armed Forces Communications and Electronics Association Award

Monterey, California, Naval Postgraduate School

---

<https://hdl.handle.net/10945/67333>

---

Downloaded from NPS Archive: Calhoun

Calhoun is the Naval Postgraduate School's public access digital repository for research materials and institutional publications created by the NPS community. Calhoun is named for Professor of Mathematics Guy K. Calhoun, NPS's first appointed -- and published -- scholarly author.

Dudley Knox Library / Naval Postgraduate School
411 Dyer Road / 1 University Circle
Monterey, California USA 93943

<http://www.nps.edu/library>

ARMED FORCES COMMUNICATIONS AND ELECTRONICS ASSOCIATION AWARD

1. Background

- a. Award was first presented in September 1982.
- b. Awardee receives a plaque with the recipient's name engraved on a metal plate.
- c. AFCEA is involved in promoting government, military and industry interface in communications, electronics, intelligence, and Joint C4I.
- d. The award is presented quarterly to an outstanding student in the following curricula: Electronics and Communications (DEC/MAR), Joint C4I (JUN), and NSA/Intelligence (SEP). All students graduating during the previous 12 month period are eligible for consideration.

2. Action

- a. The responsible action officers are respectively: for the December/March graduation, the Electronics and Communications Curricular Officer (Code 32); for the June graduation, the Joint C4I Curricular Officer (Code 39); and for the September graduation, the NSA/Intelligence Curricular Officer (Code 38).
- b. The NPS Selection Committee acts as the nominating authority.
- c. The selection board is made up of the respective Curricular Officer, Academic Associates, and the Department Chairman.
- d. This award is made on the basis of outstanding performance in the areas of communication, electronics, intelligence, and command and control.
- e. The board meets at least 30 days prior to each graduation.